Family Medicine Physician Joins Cotton-O'Neil Clinic in Wamego

(Topeka, Kan., July 28, 2009) – Stormont-Vail HealthCare proudly welcomes Bradley Cutting, M.D., to the Cotton-O'Neil medical staff. Dr. Cutting is now available to provide primary care services to patients in Wamego and surrounding areas.

Dr. Cutting, a Kansas native, received his bachelor's degree in Mechanical Engineering and graduated Magna Cum Laude at Kansas State University, Manhattan, in 1999. He worked as an engineer for Cessna Aircraft, Koch Industries and Trans World Airlines prior to making the decision to attend medical school.

Dr. Cutting received his medical degree from the University of Kansas School of Medicine, Wichita, in 2005. He completed a family medicine residency at St. Mary's Family Medicine Residency, Grand Junction, Colo., in 2008. His clinical interests include: acute and preventive care of adults, children and seniors, urgent care and sports medicine.

Prior to joining Cotton-O'Neil Clinic – Wamego, Dr. Cutting worked for one year at Puhi Kaiti Health Center in Gisborne, New Zealand. While living abroad, Dr. Cutting became an avid surfer and golfer. He also began training to compete in triathlons. Dr. Cutting lives in Wamego with his wife Kim, and two sons, Jonathan and Harrison.

Dr. Cutting is now accepting new patients at Cotton-O'Neil Clinic – Wamego, located at 1704 Commercial Circle in Wamego. To schedule an appointment with this new primary care physician, call (785) 456-2207.

About Cotton-O'Neil Clinic

Cotton-O'Neil Clinic is the largest multi-specialty physician group in Topeka, Kan. There are currently more than 166 physicians affiliated with Cotton-O'Neil Clinic, PediatricCare and the regional clinics that reach out to communities surrounding Topeka. As a group, they make up the Medical Services Division of Stormont-Vail HealthCare, and function as an integrated health care delivery system. The clinic merged with Stormont-Vail HealthCare, a Joint Commission-approved, non-profit organization in 1996. Together, they care for patients throughout northeast Kansas.
