NOTICE

Confidentiality of Alcohol and Drug/Substance Abuse Patient Records

The confidentiality of alcohol and drug/substance abuse records maintained by SVH and/or COC is protected by Federal law and regulations. Generally, SVH and/or COC may not disclose to a person outside SVH and/or COC that a patient is receiving treatment related to alcohol and/or drug/substance abuse, or disclose any information identifying a patient as an alcohol or drug/substance abuser UNLESS:

1. The patient consents in writing,
2. The disclosure is allowed by a court order, or
3. The disclosure is made to medical personnel in a medical emergency or to qualified personnel for research, audit or program evaluation.

Violation of the Federal law and regulations of a treatment facility is a crime. Suspected violations may be reported to appropriate authorities in accordance with Federal regulations.

Federal law and regulations do not protect any information about a crime committed by a patient either at the treatment facility or against any person who works for the treatment facility or about any threat to commit such a crime.

Federal laws and regulations do not protect any information about suspected child abuse or neglect from being reported under State law to appropriate State or local authorities.

(See 42 U.S.C. 290dd-3 and 42 U.S.C. 290ee-3 for Federal laws and 42 CFR Part 2 for Federal regulations.)

Prohibition on Re-disclosure:

This information has been disclosed to you from records whose confidentiality is protected by Federal law. Federal regulation prohibits you from making any further disclosure of this information except with the specific written consent of the person to whom it pertains. A general authorization for release of medical or other information if held by another party is not sufficient for this purpose. Federal regulations state that any person who violates any provision of this law shall be fined not more than $500 in the case of a first offense, and not more than $5,000 in the case of each subsequent offense.
